

WHISTLE BLOWER POLICY

INTRODUCTION

Section 177 of the Companies Act, 2013 (the Act) and relevant Rules thereon, requires the companies belonging to such class or classes to establish a vigil mechanism for their Directors and Employees to report their genuine concerns or grievances.

Accordingly, this Whistle Blower Policy (the Policy) has been formulated with a view to provide a mechanism for employees of the Company to raise concerns on any violations of legal or regulatory requirements, incorrect or misrepresentation of any financial statements and reports, etc.

OBJECTIVES

The Company is committed to adhere to the highest standards of ethical, moral and legal conduct of business operations. To maintain these standards, the Company encourages its employees who have concerns about suspected misconduct to come forward and express these concerns without fear of punishment or unfair treatment.

This Policy aims to provide an avenue for employees to raise concerns on any violations of legal or regulatory requirements, incorrect or misrepresentation of any financial statements and reports, etc.

The Whistle Blower Policy intends to cover serious concerns that could have grave impact on the operations and performance of the business of the Company.

- Treat victimization as a serious matter, including initiating disciplinary action on person/(s) indulging in victimization.

REPORTING MECHANISM

All personnel are encouraged to share questions, concerns, suggestions, or complaints with someone who is in a position to address them properly.

In most cases, a personnel's supervisor, manager or point of contact is in the best position to address an area of concern. If, however, personnel are not comfortable speaking with their supervisor or similarly situated person, or if not satisfied with such person's response, then personnel are encouraged to speak with or reach out to the Chairman of the Audit Committee.

A disclosure may be made anonymously. If a disclosure is made anonymously or otherwise, the disclosure must provide as much detail and be as specific as possible, including names and dates, in order to facilitate the investigation.

To the extent possible, the disclosure must include the following: a) The name of the employee, and/or third party or parties involved; b) Where it happened (division or office or location); c) When did it happen: a date or a period of time; d) Type of concern (what happened); e) Submit proof or identify where proof can be found, if possible; f) Who to contact for more information, if possible; and/or g) Prior efforts to address the problem, if any.

ANONYMOUS DISCLOSURES

Whistle Blowers are encouraged to put their names to their disclosures. However, individuals may raise concerns anonymously also.

As compared to concerns raised where whistle blowers have chosen to identify themselves, the Company will decide to take up an anonymously expressed concern based on the following factors:

- The seriousness of the issue raised;

- The credibility of the concern; and
- The likelihood of confirming the allegation from attributable sources.

Whistle blowers are, therefore, strongly encouraged to share their identity when making the disclosure.

PROTECTION TO WHISTLE BLOWER

I. If one raises a concern under this Policy, he/she will not be at risk of suffering any form of reprisal or retaliation. Retaliation includes discrimination, reprisal, harassment or vengeance in any manner. Company's employee will not be at the risk of losing her/ his job or suffer loss in any other manner like transfer, demotion, refusal of promotion, or the like including any direct or indirect use of authority to obstruct the Whistle Blower's right to continue to perform his/her duties/functions including making further Protected Disclosure, as a result of reporting under this Policy. The protection is available provided that:

- a. The Whistle blower has chosen to identify themselves
- b. The communication/ disclosure is made in good faith
- c. The Whistle blower reasonably believes that information, and any allegations contained in it, are substantially true; and
- d. The Whistle blower is not acting for personal gain

Anyone who abuses the procedure (for example by maliciously raising a concern knowing it to be untrue) will be subject to disciplinary action, as will anyone who victimizes a colleague by raising a concern through this procedure. If considered appropriate or necessary, suitable legal actions may also be taken against such individuals.

However, no action will be taken against anyone who makes an allegation in good faith, reasonably believing it to be true, even if the allegation is not subsequently confirmed by the investigation.

II. The Company will not tolerate the harassment or victimization of anyone raising a genuine concern. As a matter of general deterrence, the Company shall publicly inform employees of the penalty imposed and disciplinary action taken against any person for misconduct arising from retaliation. Any investigation into allegations of potential misconduct will not influence or be influenced by any disciplinary or redundancy procedures already taking place concerning an employee reporting a matter under this policy.

Any other Employee/business associate assisting in the said investigation shall also be protected to the same extent as the Whistle blower.
